

Lead Balloon Show Will Be Short One Roscoe

Tuesday, 08 February 2011 12:58

It's not easy, getting up early several days a week to do morning radio...especially if you're in your 80's.

Roscoe Short of La Crosse has had a regular spot on the 'Lead Balloon Show' on WKTY Radio, for about 30 years. But Roscoe says it's time to give up those radio hours.

Roscoe announced his surprise retirement from the radio show today. He still tends bar once a week at the Vogue, the north-side tavern started by his family just after Prohibition.
