A teenage driver who was accused of vehicular homicide in Winona County pleads guilty to a lesser charge...

Eighteen-year-old Adam Greden admits to careless driving for allegedly racing with another student from Lewiston-Altura High School last April. The second driver lost control of her pickup and crashed. She and two of the three other girls in the truck were killed. Greden was charged about six months after the accident. He'll be sentenced on the reduced charge on May 12th.
