

Lacrosse County has a new board chair. It's Tara Johnson. She was voted in Thursday night by her surrounding supervisors. The District 18 Representative replaces Steve Doyle, who was recently elected to the Wisconsin State Assembly. Doyle has retained his seat on the county board. Johnson has been a board member for the past 11 years. She is also a former director of the Lacrosse Area United Way.