

Three Accused Of Hiding Man's Body After Drug Death

Friday, 05 August 2011 13:14

For now, they're suspected of hiding the body of a man who died after taking drugs.

Three La Crosse residents, including a father and son, made their first court appearance today after being arrested on Thursday. Bond for Christina Lorenz is set at 250-thousand dollars cash. Her co-defendants, Robert and Cain Moss, have slightly lower bonds. The D-A's office says the three gave drugs to the man whose body was hidden near Red Cloud Park yesterday. When the man died suddenly, the suspects apparently had to find a way to dispose of the corpse.
