

The Wisconsin Court of Appeals District 4 includes Lacrosse County. Assistant Attorney General JoAnne Kloppenburg says she wants to represent the area and others as she has announced she will run for the opening on the Court of Appeals which was created by the retirement of Judge Margaret Vergeront.

Kloppenburg also announced her campaign committee will voluntarily limit all contributions to her campaign to $1000 per individual or political action committee.

The $1000 limit follows the limits set by Wisconsin's previous public financing laws and falls within guidelines recommended by national groups.
