

La Crosse County Home Prices Higher This October

Monday, 21 November 2011 13:32

La Crosse county bucked a statewide trend for October. The state Realtors Association says both the median price and number of home sales increased in the county for October over last year. The median price of a home sold in October in La Crosse was 145 thousand dollars, compared to a little over 129 thousand for last October. Showing an increase of over 12 percent. Median home price last month statewide was 132 thousand dollars. 140 thousand for October last year. That's a decrease of over five percent