

First hurdle cleared for adding a top administrator in city hall. A La Crosse council committee last night is the first to agree to a plan to add a city administrator. The right thing to do, says councilman Bob Seaquist

But ron Clark is among those who spoke at the committee meeting against the plan the full council will have to approve the city administrator proposal on a two thirds vote.