

Last month, Monroe County board members voted 18-4 to form a jail and courthouse building and renovation committee. A step that goes back to.....

County Board Chair, Rick Irwin, says the committee will be responsible for establishing goals and building, renovation and financing strategies as well as centralized county services and departments. Irwin feels a substantial move will be made in 2012 to get the building of a new jail and courthouse underway.