

Hovde Announces Senate Run

Friday, 09 March 2012 13:51

Hedge fund manager Eric Hovde announced his Republican candidacy for the U.S. Senate Thursday by lashing out at the Obama stimulus and the TARP banking bailout program. He made a stop at Empire Printing today in Onalaska...we asked him...why there?

He's the CEO of Hovde Capital Advisors. He's the fifth Republican to run for the Senate seat that's being vacated by Democrat Herb Kohl. They'll all square off in a GOP primary in mid-August.
