

Lawmakers Pass Bonding Bill

Tuesday, 08 May 2012 09:22

The Minnesota Vikings Stadium proposal was not the only thing lawmakers tackled Monday. The House approved borrowing $496 million as part of a bonding bill.

Republican Senator, Jeremy Miller of Winona, says the money will go towards statewide construction, including work on campus buildings, bridges and roads, flood mitigation and renovations to the state Capitol building.