

America's past time will continue at UW-LaCrosse. The baseball team was endanger of being dropped due to budget shortfalls. With the deadline to save the team looming two anonymous donors stepped up and provided enough financial backing to keep the Eagles baseball team going through the 2015 season. The anonymous couple donated 100 thousand bucks to keep baseball at UWL.