

As the Republican State Convention ended yesterday in Green Bay, Senate Candidate, Bill Feehan, said the GOP walked away with a sense of urgency to get people to the polls. We asked him if the recall election of Governor Scott Walker was Barrett vs. Walker or the State of Wisconsin versus Walker.

House Budget Chairman Paul Ryan told the Green Bay convention on Saturday night that apathy will lose those contests against Governor Scott Walker and five other officials. The election is set for June 5th.
