

La Crosse City Hall Employees Suspended

Tuesday, 29 May 2012 11:48

A couple of high level employees have been placed on administrative leave at La Crosse city hall. We're told city prosecutor Pete Kisken and Community Development Administrator Lianna Escott have been placed on leave. We're told both were escorted from La Crosse city hall late last week. Requests for additional information from the city attorney's office and the human resources office regarding the suspensions have gone unanswered so far. Mayor Matt Harter and city council president Audrey Kader have also both declined to comment on the apparent discipline.
