

More details are coming out around the death of a La Crosse man last night. The La Crosse Police Department says a 53 year old man fell from the top level of the parking ramp at Jay and 3rd streets around 10pm. The man was pronounced dead at the scene. Police say, based on a preliminary investigation and several eye witnesses to the incident at the scene, that this is a possible suicide. It's department policy in regards to suicide investigations, that they are unable to provide any additional information.
