

Hey Lady, There's a Guy Under Your Car

Monday, 19 April 2010 10:26

Could have been a tragic ending to a car versus bicycle crash in La Crosse. Cops say a 62 year-old woman was waiting for traffic to clear on Friday evening. Apparently didn't take that last quick look before taking off. Cops say she ran over a guy on the bike. And didn't notice. A witness had to yell at her to let her know that she was dragging a man under her car. The woman was ticketed. The bicyclist was injured but able to answer police questions at the scene.
