

La Crosse County leaders, and their counterparts across the state, are considering a resolution that would urge the state Legislature to require online only retailers to collect Wisconsin sales tax. Why?

\(Click for Audio\)

County Administrator Steve O'Malley says with some agenda shifting going on with the county board, the resolution will be discussed next month. It's being powered by the Wisconsin Counties Association.