

Ed Biddick was born in southwest WI, the youngest of five children. Biddick attended Mining School, later named the University of Wisconsin, Platteville, where he received a degree in Civil Engineering in 1958. Ed is a proud husband to Jean and father of Robert, Lynn and Debra. Six grandchildren and two great grandchildren complete a very full and happy family! After Biddick retired from his 38-year career with the DOT in La Crosse, he volunteered at a local hospital for seven years. He and his wife continue to volunteer at the American Red Cross Blood Drives, as well as their Church. The family spends any free time on the river boating, camping, beaching, and houseboating. Their grandchildren continue with the tradition they have started. Oktoberfest has always been a big part of Ed and Jean's lives as they were Grenadiers in 1990 and served with the Corps for six years. They were named Oktoberfest "Volunteers of the Year" in 2001 and continued to drive the Oktoberfest float in many parades.
