

Now that Wisconsin knows what its tobacco grades are, it's time to make them better. Judy Zabel with the La Crosse County Health department says smoke free work places have worked. So how about apartment buildings?

\(Click for Audio\)

Zabel says some cities in the state have gone to smoke free apartment buildings and that may be something that grows this year.