

There will likely be no new major initiatives announced tonight during Governor Mark Dayton's State of the State address but State Rep. Gene Pelowski of Winona says the governor has a lot of work to persuade the legislature and the public about tax increases and spending increases in his budget plan.

\(Click for Audio\)

Dayton will address a joint session of the Minnesota House and Senate.