

A new position for the chair of the La Crosse GOP. And for Julian Bradley, it's been a long time coming.

\(Click for Audio\)

It also means he'll be a member of the state GOP's executive committee, also a first for a La Crosse Republican in over three decades. Bradley defeated two others over the weekend at the party's annual caucus in Tomah.