

Both candidates for the second district council seat in La Crosse recognize the need for attention in their neighborhoods. Business owner Scott Neumeister says making the city attractive to live in for those who otherwise commute in and out of La Crosse is key

\(Click for Audio\)

Good housing environment is important, says Dempsey Miller, La Crosse school district employee. But so is security

\(Click for Audio\)

The second district council race is one of three on next week's ballot that don't feature an incumbent.