

One of the longest ongoing fundraising runs in La Crosse is coming to an end. The Chileda Classic will have its final run this summer after more than thirty years. Hard decision, says Chileda president, Ruth Wiseman, but one based on a new reality

\(Click for Audio\)

Wiseman also says a huge bump in fees for the race charged by the city is taking a big bite out of the money that is raised for the event.