

Committee Vote Pushes Forward Higher Minimum

Monday, 29 April 2013 12:37

Minnesota seems to be moving towards a higher minimum wage. Lawmakers in the key Ways and Means Committee in St Paul today passed legislation that would increase the minimum to $9.50 an hour by 2015. In strong opposition, Republican Greg Davids from Preston

\(Click for Audio\)

The current legislation would have the minimum increase with inflation after 2015.