

40 Arrested Monday Morning In Winona

Monday, 29 April 2013 13:37

Winona Catholic Workers organized a frac sand mine protest Monday morning. Protesters say their goal was to halt business operations at 2 mining sites. Winona Police Chief, Paul Bostrack said they almost ran out of handcuffs.

\(Click for Audio\)

Bostrack said all on duty police officers, including investigators, were at the harbor, along with many sheriff's deputies and the Minnesota State Patrol. Those arrested and cited were charged with trespassing.