

Various Rule Changes Could Come for Dogs in La Crosse Parks

Tuesday, 21 May 2013 09:58

---

A little more freedom on the way for dog in La Crosse as well as some new restrictions. New rules are in the works to restrict dogs from all athletic fields, including the Fields for Kids soccer fields near the city's industrial park as well as the city-owned Forest Hills golf course. But Park and rec director Steve Carlyon wants to allow dogs on sidewalks in Riverside Park again and he wants some changes to leash rules

\(Click for Audio\)

What would continue is dogs would have to remain on leash and only on the walks adjacent to city parks.