

Road Closed Due to Gas Leak

Wednesday, 30 June 2010 10:51

A LaCrosse county road is temporarily closed. This morning a gas line ruptured causing crews to close the portion of county highway M that runs from West Salem to Barre Mills. Emergency dispatch advises drivers to stay away from that area until the gas line is fixed and the road is re-opened. It could take a few hours before repairs are completed.