

Tea Party Rally Set for Sunday in La Crosse

Friday, 02 July 2010 08:49

Another Independence Day rally for local Tea Partiers. La Crosse Tea Party organizer Jake Speed has an event planned for Sunday in Copeland park. Over eight hundred showed for last year's event, he says. This year? Hard to say, says Speed. The numbers tend to ebb and flow. Depends on what sorts of things pop up in the news. A self-taught constitutional scholar will be among the attractions at Sunday's Tea Party rally as well as the discussion about how much the nation's debt costs each American. The rally starts at 2 pm at Copeland.
