

The University of Wisconsin System has proposed an across the board tuition freeze for next year. We talked with UW-L Chancellor Joe Gow moments after the votes were taken Thursday morning by the Board of Regents.

\(Click for Audio\)

The passage also extends the Legislature mandated freeze on tuition for state undergraduates to include out of state and graduate students, as well.