

Sex Offender Released in La Crosse

Tuesday, 06 July 2010 10:41

La Crosse gets another sex offender released into the community today. La Crosse police say 33 year-old Earl Yanske will live at Attic correctional on Rose street beginning today. Yanske did time most recently for having sex with a 15 year-old girl. But he's been convicted in the past of having sex with a 14 year-old runaway. Cops say Yanske's not to have any unsupervised contact with children.
