

When U-W-L was awarded this year's national Division 3 track finals, the campus had only two years to prepare for the event. The university has learned that it will have the finals again just over four years from now. Two other national tourneys will be held in La Crosse between now and then...and that's good news for Dave Clements at the local Convention and Visitor Bureau:

\(Click for Audio\)

La Crosse has now hosted NCAA nationals in different sports three years in a row...and will take a break next year, before a gymnastics meet is held in March of 2015.