

Dan Cary left some big shoes to fill when he unexpectedly died last November.

New Monroe County District Attorney, Kevin Kroninger says he worked very closely with Cary so he feels he has a step up as he enters the new job.

\(Click for Audio\)

One place Kroninger says he will pick up from Cary's departure is filling some holes staffing wise in his office.