

Repeal Act 10? Democratic candidate for governor Mary Burke stops just short of saying that she would work towards completely reversing controversial changes to collective bargaining powers of unions in Wisconsin. But in an interview this week, Burke does indicate she would roll back some of the law's provisions. The very same provisions that have saved taxpayers so much money, says La Crosse county republican party chair, Bill Feehan

\(Click for Audio\)

Feehan says that change alone has probably saved taxpayers up to a billion dollars.