

A movie premiere is set in Onalaska next week. On May 15th, the general public will have its first chance to see a locally-produced film about tragedies that can happen to high school students who make bad decisions. 'The Pause' was produced by the Onalaska Hilltopper Rotary Club. Rotary spokesman Scott Davies says two Onalaska firefighters who set up mock accidents did their own video a while back, out of necessity:

\(Click for Audio\)

The cast and crew of 'The Pause' got to see the finished movie last night in West Salem. The premiere on the 15th will happen at Onalaska High School. Seats must be reserved on the website 'The Pause Project-dot-com.'