

Even though Winona Police released a picture last week of who they think is burning American flags all over the city's west side, the perp has struck again. An 18th flag burning happened over the weekend. The latest report came from a home owner near Sixth and Huff Street. Last week police released a surveillance picture of a man they described as a person of interest. The picture was taken on July 29th in Goodview where the police department had set up a camera. Winona Deputy Police Chief Tom Williams said so far his department has received three or four tips on the case but have not been able to identify the man in the picture.
