

The new coach is eager to get to know his team...

On the day of the Super Bowl, Joel Dettwiler got to meet the football players he'll be coaching next fall at U-W-La Crosse. While talking to them, and to reporters today, Coach Dettwiler tells his new players that they have to be committed to doing their best on and off the field. Dettwiler comes to La Crosse from Wartburg College in Iowa, where he's been an assistant coach. He played ball against La Crosse's national championship teams while attending U-W-Platteville in the 1990's.
