

If Wisconsin's new Republican leaders seem determined to pass a bill of union restrictions quickly...union leaders are just as determined to stop it.

The chant 'Kill the bill' went up repeatedly at La Crosse's Riverside Park last night, during a labor rally that drew hundreds of spectators. County Board member Tara Johnson says Governor Walker's budget plan is 'malicious' and would cut pay for 300-thousand state workers.

Earlier in the day, a smaller group of picketers booed and yelled at Governor Scott Walker as he left a local steel girder plant in Muddy Flats.
