

La Crosse county democrats clearly have discussed a recall possibility for state senator Dan Kapanke. Proof of that comes from Democratic party chair Andrew Londre in a statement today. He says his party will wait for votes on a budget repair bill in Madison before considering a recall for the Republican senator. But Londre also says Kapanke would be foolish to vote for a bill which his constituents clearly oppose.