

Jow Gow is going no where. Seriously. He's staying here. The UW-L Chancellor let his students and staff know via email today that he is no longer a candidate for a position at a university in New York.

Gow had applied for the position of president of State University of New York at New Paltz.

Gow stated that while the college is a wonderful school and the people there are outstanding... that departing for New Paltz right now wouldn't be a good move. Gow says he feels he has been effective at UW-L and doesn't think he could be any more effective at that institution.
