

Lawmakers To Hold Their Own Budget Hearing

Wednesday, 13 April 2011 11:57

A non partisan budget hearing will be held Monday April 25th at UW-L and will feature area lawmakers who want your voice to be heard in Madison when it comes to Governor Scott Walker's proposed 2 year budget.

Senate Democrat Kathleen Vinehout is encouraging people to attend the hearing.....and let lawmakers know how the budget would effect you. She says all documentation will be taken back to the state's capitol.

Others in attendance will include Representative's Chris Danou and Jennifer Shilling along with lawmakers from Madison and Milwaukee.

The hearing will be held from 1-7pm at the Cartwright Center, room 339.
