

A major part of the Lacrosse School District 2008 referendum is about to get underway.

The district's Joe Ledvina says the district will spend $1.57 million on 49 projects at 17 schools district wide.

One project, replacing a boiler at Lincoln Middle School, was put on hold until next week due to cold temperatures in the area this week.