

Onalaska Picks New Superintendent From Within

Friday, 06 May 2011 17:26

Fran's the man. Or, at least, the new superintendent for the Onalaska school district. Current director of instruction and curriculum for the district, Fran Finco, gets the nod from the school board to lead Onalaska as of July first. The board will make it official with a vote on Monday. Finco takes over from long time superintendent John Burnett.
