

Governor Scott Walker will not order a special election for the 95th Assembly District until after Jennifer Shilling is sworn in to the state senate. But in the mean time...some names are starting to surface as to who is thinking about running for the open post.

Take for example, Lacrosse County Board District 6 member, Jill Billings.

Though, the wife of Judge Elliot Levine, says she has not officially announced that she will run on the Democratic ticket....she says the thought process has sure kicked in. Billings tells WIZM news that any announcement would be put on hold until after Jennifer Shilling is sworn in to the 32nd Senate District. She says this is Shillings time to shine.
