

Police Cut Crossing Guard Numbers in Half

Thursday, 25 August 2011 11:35

Looking for crossing guards this school year? You'll have to look a lot harder in La Crosse. The city has cut in half the number of crossing guards on the streets to start the school year. From ten last year to five this year. The five intersections that will have crossing guards in La Crosse are at Campbell Road in front of Emerson elementary, at 21st and Main, 7th and Johnson, Gillette and Kane, and George and Gillette.
