

School Offers Breakfast in Return for Walking

Tuesday, 20 September 2011 17:27

Kids might not walk to school for exercise. Maybe not to relieve traffic congestion. But maybe they will for a free breakfast. At least that's the carrot behind one school's plan for a safe routes to school walk Wednesday morning. La Crosse's Lincoln Middle School is organizing a group walk starting at Weigent Park. The first of several Wednesday morning group walks scheduled for the fall. Kids who make the trek will get a free breakfast once they get to school.
