

The two candidates hoping to fill the vacant 95th Assembly District seat will meet for a debate at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse. Candidates Jill Billings, a Democrat, and Dave Drewes, a Republican, will debate from 7-8 p.m. Monday, October 31st, in the Hall of Nations in Centennial Hall. The event is free and open to the public.

The candidates are running for the seat formerly held by State Senator Jennifer Shilling. The special election is Tuesday, November 8th.

The event is sponsored by the UW-L Joint Legislative Committee, Political Science Department and Student Association.
