

Voter fraud averted in La Crosse. A complaint filed in the city says a guy from the northside signed a Wisconsin Voter Registration application despite being a felon on parole. Can't vote in Wisconsin if you're a felon still under supervision by the state. The La Crosse DA says no charges necessary and has recommended that the city clerk's office simply reject the application.