

If your caught bringing a concealed weapon into a Western Technical College building after tomorrow, which would be breaking state law.....the size of punishment would be higher now. A sticky situation for WTC officials.

President Lee Raasch says if doesn't feel the new law will bring any problems to the campus. Signs barring concealed weapons went up on campus buildings last week.