

A special hearing on the rules and training requirements is going on in Madison today. Representative Scott Suder took the stand first off this morning...then it was Attorney General J.B Van Hollen's turn.

Questions to be answered include how much actual training time should a person should have to have.....and time based versus curriculum based training.