

A Veteran's Day program will be held at Western Technical College this afternoon....it's free and open to the public. Jeff Shame of Vets For Vets on campus has the schedule of events.

The event is co-sponsored by Western's Vets for Vets Club and Campus Events Committee. They chose to hold it the day before Veterans Day to maximize student participation and avoid conflict with other community events.