

Man Dies In Industrial Plant Accident

Friday, 09 December 2011 15:52

---

A Monroe County Man is dead after being involved in an industrial accident which happened this morning just before 10.

The accident happened at the Valley Pride Packing Plant in Norwalk. The man was taken to Mayo Clinic Health System in Sparta first by the Wilton Ambulance Service with an emergency intercept by the Sparta Area Ambulance Service for advanced emergency life support. He was pronounced dead at the hospital.

His name is being withheld pending notification of family. The Monroe County Sheriff's Department along with the Occupational Safety and Health Administration are investigating